

The Queen's Platinum Jubilee celebrations

The Queen is passing an unprecedented milestone for a British monarch in 2022 as she marks her Platinum Jubilee with celebrations over a four day period between 2nd and 5th June. Below are the details of what is happening in our own community over the four days:

Thursday 2nd June –In conjunction with other Churches in the UK, the Church bells will ring from 19.52 hours to 20.22 hours. The Druids Arms will host a Barbecue from 6pm in the evening with Live Music from 7pm and at 9:45 the bonfire will be lit to coincide with the lighting of beacons across the country.

Friday 3rd June - A concert will take place in the church featuring the Community choir and the Primary School choir. In addition the acclaimed guitarist Benji Bartlett will be performing..The event will be free, there will be a retiring collection in aid of Stanton Drew PTA, and St Mary's Church

Saturday 4th June - A Right Royal Get Together - An evening of entertainment in the Village Hall with a full bar, live music from the acclaimed musicians, Trio Paradis performing music of the British Isles followed by a hot and cold buffet and then a Last Night of the Proms inspired singalong and more royal shenanigans.

A fun and enjoyable evening. Entry by ticket

Sunday 5th June - Picnic in the Paddock – 1pm to 5pm.

In the village hall paddock, there will be a bar serving alcoholic and soft drinks all afternoon . Everyone will be welcome to come along with their own picnic and blanket to relax and take in the beautiful surroundings. There will also be tables and chairs laid out for those who prefer to keep their blanket on the ground as a fond memory.
